

WEEK'S REVIEW IN BRIEF

NOTABLE HAPPENINGS FROM THE WORLD AT LARGE.

Bolled Down For Busy Minds Into Nuts Giving Valuable Information of the Great Fasting Show as Gleaned from the Wire Reports.

Archduke Albert, uncle of the Emperor of Austria is dead.

It is asserted that William C. Wilson is to be sent to Mexico.

The Methodist college at Beaver Falls, Pa., has been destroyed by fire.

There is a possibility that St. Louis may have long-distance telephones before long.

The Senate spent nearly the entire day Tuesday wrangling over the finance question.

Steven Johnson, in jail at Guthrie, Ok., on a charge of horsestealing hanged himself.

James W. Scott has purchased a controlling interest in the Chicago Herald and Post.

Major E. Tate of Pierce City, Mo., was horribly mangled by a freight train last week.

Cherokee Bill, on trial at Ft. Smith, Ark., was convicted of two more robberies Saturday.

Minister Gray's remains crossed the line into the United States at El Paso, Texas Monday morning.

A new distilling company has been formed at Peoria. It is said that Greenhut will manage it.

William H. Cornwall, now in San Francisco, will return to Honolulu and stand trial for treason.

It is reported that insurgent Bedouins have captured the large part of the city of Muscat, Arabia.

Searcy, one of the Aquila Creek train robbers, illustrated his testimony by donning a mask like the one he wore at the hold-up.

The Senate and the House conferees on the consular appropriation bill reported a disagreement on the Hawaiian cable attachment.

Walter G. Hamner, for twenty years teller of the First National bank of Lynchburg, Va., has been arrested for the embezzlement of $23,000.

A negro on his death bed at Halsey, Ky., confessed that he had committed five murders, for one of which an innocent man was hanged.

The Tennessee National Guard will dissolve. All the members will resign because of an unsatisfactory appropriation by the legislature.

Two convict miners were suffocated and eighteen others were nearly killed by a fire in a shaft of a coal mine at Pratt City, Ala., on Monday.

Charles Nicholas fell under an electric car at San Antonio, Tex., Saturday and was horribly mangled. He was a veteran of the rebellion.

The United Labor League of Philadelphia voted 16 to 4 to condemn the police of that city for suppressing the speeches of Anarchist Mowbray.

Ruiz Zorrilla, the Spanish Republic, long an exile, but recently allowed to return to his country from exile has been stricken with paralysis.

Archbishop Corrigan of New York City has promulgated the papal edict against Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Sons of Temperance.

Altamont G. Walker, a business man of Terre Haute, Ind., shot his wife slightly and then killed himself. He was insane from business troubles.

The elevated railroad at Sioux City, Ia., the second built in this country, has been sold for $50,000 to a Minneapolis capitalist. It cost one million.

The fiftieth anniversary of Rev. Moses D. Hoge's pastorate of the Second Presbyterian church of Richmond, Va., will be celebrated next Sunday.

Ties were placed in the track and nearly succeeded in wrecking the north-bound passenger on the Burlington near Carmi, Ill., Friday night.

The sixty-third anniversary of the Congressional Temperance society was held in Washington Monday. Congressman Dingley of Maine, presided.

Sidney Colvin of London, and Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson propose to publish the letters of the late novelist and have asked all who have any to send them to the widow.

The supreme court of Utah has decided the legislative election case against the Utah commission. The latter then issued election certificates to fifty-seven Republican and forty-five Democrats.

M. Danville, a farmer living near Yankton, N. D., reports the arrival of another set of triplets at his home. The couple have now twenty-seven children, although Mrs. Danville is not 30 years old. She is a Norwegian and her husband a Hoosier. All the children were born in triplets, the oldest lot being under 13 years old. All are boys but three, one set of triplets being girls, and they are all sturdy and healthy.

A fire broke out in the Asbury hospital, a Methodist institution, at Minneapolis, Minn., Monday morning. There were about thirty patients in the hospital at the time, and all were safely removed to St. Barab's hospital just across the street. A force of laundresses and nurses on the top floor were rescued with difficulty. The flames were distinguished before the building had been seriously damaged.

In a wreck on the Norfolk and Western near Hunting, W. Va., the other day one man was killed and three others dangerously injured.

Henry Irving, the English actor, is very ill.

Twenty-five fourth-class postmasters were appointed.

At the Illinois state fair a day will be set apart for the old soldiers.

The insurance companies have offered a reward of $10,000 for Dr. Fraker.

The Khedive has signed the marriage contract with his harem favorite.

Dr. Hulke, president of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, is dead.

Secretary Carlisle has returned from New York suffering from an attack of grip.

H. Ben Wise, a drummer, died at Mexico, Mo., from an overdose of morphine.

Two thousand Chinese soldiers were killed by the explosion of a magazine last week.

Elliott of Kansas City, defeated Fulford of Utica, again at live bird shooting.

James B. Gentry, who murdered Madge Yorkie, will recover from his self-inflicted wounds.

Cardella Hill of Charleston, W. Va., killed her father because he was choking her mother.

Mrs. Ramey, wife of Rev. Mr. Ramey of Newport, Mo., was terribly gored by a vicious cow.

The trial of Captain Howgate for embezzling from Uncle Sam was given to the jury last week.

The bill providing for a new bridge over the Mississippi at St. Louis was again favorably reported.

Frank Victorato, a Greek, who fought with Marco Bozzaris, died at Salem, Mass., last week.

Venizona Nino cut his wife's throat in the presence of their children in New York last Tuesday.

Patrick Higgins, once a go-between for English and American Fenians, died at Liverpool last week.

The Japanese government has asked Parliament for 100,000,000 yen additional to carry on the war.

Joseph Sorge, once a wealthy St. Joseph, Mo., man, committed suicide by hanging in the attic of his home.

Congress has been memorialized to withdraw the lands, including the Arizona petrified forest from settlement.

The Kansas City cable railway company was consolidated by stipulation, filed in the Supreme court at Jefferson City, Mo.

Mexican coins which United States statutes provides may be received at the treasury are no longer coined at Mexico.

Several Paris newspaper men convicted of blackmail were sentenced last week to terms of imprisonment.

J. Foster Rhodes of Chicago, was knighted by King Carlos of Portugal. Mr. Rhodes is a promoter of building companies.

Lord Roseberry called a special cabinet meeting Tuesday. Dissolution of parliament is believed to be imminent.

Germany is preparing war material, re-arming her forts and drilling her troops as though in preparation for trouble.

Samuel Young, of Willshire, O., 70 years of age, stabbed to death his young wife and then hanged himself last week.

Some doubt is felt that the Senate may not confirm the appointment of Dr. Senner as Immigration Inspector at New York.

Albert Whipple, who is a fugitive bank defaulter of Nebraska, proves to be the same man who did time in Iowa for swindling.

In a wreck on the L. & N. near Greenville, Ala., an unknown man was killed and five cars were burned Saturday.

Four parties to a feud fought at Osborn's Gap, Virginia, last week. Three were killed and the fourth was horribly wounded.

The fire in the hold of the steamer Cape Carientes, which arrived at Harve, February 17, from Galveston, is under control.

Near San Angelo, Tex., Mrs. Augustine was killed by a drunken Mexican while trying to protect her daughter from him.

Belle Mosby, one of the survivors of the civil war horses, was buried last week with military honors at Library, near Pittsburg, Pa.

G. Andre Mondehare, French Consul at Chicago, was assaulted by a negro because he tried to save a kitten from dogs.

The contest for the county clerkship of Buchanan county, Missouri, was decided in favor of Robert Nash, Democrat.

A concurrent resolution passed both Missouri houses providing for a popular vote on a proposition to remove the capital from Jefferson City to Sedalia.

John Young, sentenced to be hanged March 13, escaped from the jail at Edmonson county, Kentucky.

Li-Hung-Chang will attempt to overthrow the present Chinese dynasty in revenge for indignities put upon him.

It has been decided to inter the remains of the late Frederick Douglass in Mount Hope Cemetery, Rochester, N. Y.

Lima, the capital of Peru is surrounded by the insurgents.

It was decided at a meeting in Chicago to combine all the millers' organizations throughout the country.

HAPPENINGS IN KANSAS.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO DWELLERS IN THE SUNFLOWER.

The Week's Review of Personal and General News Condensed to Short Paragraphs for the Convenience of Hurried Readers.

Arthur Dickinson, the 17-year old son of S. S. Dickinson, of Larned, an old G. A. R. man, was Monday thrown under a farm wagon drawn by a pair of runaway horses. His nose, jaw and thigh were broken and internal injuries were received by him which will probably result in death.

Tuesday night the second hand store of Brown Emmett, 117 1/2 West Douglas, Wichita, was broken into by thieves and about $10 worth of fire arms was stolen. It is supposed that some tramp, who was out of money, had adopted this means of securing something which had value. No clue has as yet come to the ears of the officers.

Shirville & Corbett's grocery store, Dulinsky & Bryant's grocery store and Clements and Bros' drug store were robbed last week and some money and some goods taken from each place. No clue as to who the thieves were has been discovered. Evidence that an attempt to enter other places of business was made are visible.

United States Marshal Neeley has informed Clyde Mattox to prepare to go to Wichita about the first of the month to receive the sentence of death in the United States court which convenes there about that time. It is expected that the date of his execution will be set for some time in May or early in June, the same to take place in the jail of Sedgewick county.

President J. P. Davis of the Kansas Mutual, stated to a reporter that all the insurance companies in which Dr. Fraker held policies had offered a reward of $10,000 for the apprehension of Dr. Fraker, who, he says, is alive. Mr. Davis says the companies feel confident that they will be able to find Fraker, and that if they do not in six months the policies will be paid as agreed upon recently.

The session of the grand Union of the Equitable Aid union for Kansas adjourned Wednesday morning. The following officers were elected for the next year: William Fletcher, Kansas City, Kansas, president; Mrs. Jennie B. White, Paola, vice-president; F. H. Barker, Kansas City, Kansas, secretary; J. H. Weber, Kansas City, Kansas, accountant; D. H. Justus, Minneapolis, treasurer.

The seventh annual meeting of the Missouri and Kansas association of Lumber Dealers convened at Kansas City Tuesday at the headquarters of the association. Matters of interest to the trade were discussed. The convention was convened Wednesday and in the evening a grand concatenation of Hoo Hoo was held in the club rooms. The association is composed of retail dealers of Missouri and Kansas.

The Mutual telephone company lately organized at Fort Scott to compete with the Bell company went into actual operation Wednesday. The new company is using the Reynolds transmitter and subscribers are only charged $1 per month, while the Bell company collects $4 per month. The new company has already twice as many customers as the old company, whose patrons are all putting in the cheaper phones.

A war on liquor sellers is raging at Emporia. No less than two hundred or three hundred saloonkeepers and druggists have been arrested within the past week or two, and in every case fined by police court. Among the number were some of the wealthiest druggists in the city, who move in the most exclusive society, and who are among the oldest inhabitants. Tuesday six alleged violators of the prohibitory law were arrested.

At about 2 o'clock Tuesday morning a destructive fire broke out in the general merchandise store of Alex Cunningham at the corner of Main and First streets, Council Grove. The store building and stock of goods are a total wreck. The loss is from $8,000 to $8,500 with insurance of $4,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. The prompt action of the hose companies with a good pressure of water saved a number of other buildings.

Hartwell P. Heath, or Editor Frank H. Truesdell, as the case may be, who was jailed at Emporia Tuesday for attempting to pass forged drafts, still maintains his cool self-possession, and refuses to talk to anyone. He gave an unwilling sitting for a photograph Tuesday afternoon. A dispatch has been received by Marshal Flemming from the Chief of Police of Syracuse, N. Y., requesting Heath's picture and urging his detention, as the Syracuse authorities say they want him on two charges of forgery. County Attorney Simpson thinks Lyons county will not care to incur the expense of bringing witnesses from California in order to convict the prisoner, but the bankers say California witnesses will be here, and that he will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

The stockholders of the Kansas University Oratorical association have elected H. J. Myers, treasurer; E. E. Waltrim, W. H. Wynne, W. H. Mason, executive committee; B. B. McCall, C. A. Loomis, C. G. Clark, ex-adjusters.

A special from Abilene, Kansas, says: Rev. E. L. Prather, pastor of the First Baptist church Wednesday filed two suits for $3,000 damages for slander against L. D. Tolliver and C. O. Spangler, leading members of his church, whom he charges with making false charges against his morality.

A department encampment of the G. A. R. was held in Lawrence this week.

The sum of $30,000 has been appropriated by the legislature for irrigation.

The man who is thought to be the one who attempted to rob the Rock Island at Whiting last October and killed the agent has been arrested and now awaits identification at Holton.

A bill has been passed in the legislature appropriating $7,000 for the relief of Mary E. Thorpe and minor children, the husband being killed while on duty as a state employee in the penitentiary coal mine in July, 1893.

The safe in the Santa Fe depot at Baldwin was blown open last week. The amount taken was not large as Agent Van Keuron had remitted the day before. Suspicion points to tramps who were looting around the depot.

A man by the name of B. W. Hiatt has been circulating through portions of Missouri seeking aid for the poor in Kansas, claiming the people are in such destitute circumstances as to compel them to eat horse flesh. He is an imposter.

W. F. Coulson, a prominent grain buyer of Anthony fell from the veranda, three feet high, at his residence last Monday morning, breaking his neck. He was well known throughout the state and was a candidate for state grain inspector.

W. P. Hall, a traveling salesman for the Hill Safe and Lock Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, died at Hiawatha Thursday soon after eating a hearty breakfast. He was taken ill and died in a few minutes. The coroner will investigate. Hall had a family living in Topeka.

The eastern bound Union Pacific passenger train was thrown from the track at Solomon, eight miles west of Abilene, by a broken truck at noon Thursday. The sleepers, diner and one coach left the track but did not turn over. No one was injured and the passengers went on in other coaches.

Mrs. Sarah Wilkins, a noted widow of Atchison county, after hearing her attorney plead a case in court in which she was interested, discharged him and conducted the case herself. Mrs. Wilkins is an extensive farmer, very shrewd and rich. She once appeared in the supreme court of the state.

The second $10,000 damage suit of Mrs. Emma J. Phelps against Mayor Cloyes, the late board of police commissioner and ex-Governor Lewelling on the ground that her husband was able to secure liquor at the joints, which were allowed to run in violation of the prohibitory law was dismissed by Judge Webb at Topeka last week.

At 9 o'clock Tuesday night Gottlieb Huebner, aged 60 years, believed to be a farmer of Platt county, Missouri, was found unconscious at the bottom of Three Mile creek just north of the court house at Leavenworth. He had fallen from the bridge, a distance of forty feet, and the creek being practically dry, his body struck the hard ground, and he was probably fatally injured.

William Baker, twenty-four years old, and the sole support of his aged parents, was instantly killed at noon Monday in a North Leavenworth, Kansas, coal mine by an electrical current of three hundred volts passing through his body. He and three other men were operating the electrical machinery for the mining company. William Jenkins who was engineering the machine received the same current, but was not seriously hurt.

While preparing for bed one night last week, about 10 o'clock, Frank Pfeiffer, of Fort Scott, aged 19 years, dropped a spark from his pipe into a sack containing three pounds of gunpowder in an open wash stand drawer. By the explosion which followed the roof was raised and the front and sides of the building were forced out by the concussion. The young man was horribly burned, his clothes catching fire. He ran down stairs, where his life was saved by his parents. A brother who slept in the same room, was blown from his bed against the wall, but was not seriously injured. The Pfeiffer house was a large one. The noise of the explosion was heard a mile distant.

Inspector Johnson of St. Louis, of the Postoffice service received more than the usual number of reports Friday. Three of them covered cases of violation of the law prohibiting the mailing of obscene literature. S. H. Kaffelt was arrested at Fort Scott, Kansas, Wednesday, for this offense, and went to jail after admitting his guilt. Inspector Cochran who made the arrest, also reports the imprisonment at Gauda Springs, Kansas, of Grant Thomas, who is charged with the same offense. The third case is that of W. B. Felt, who entered a plea of guilty at Topeka, Kansas, and was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment. The Felt case has been pending since June, 1892.

The weather during the past week has been of the finest. The Grand Union of the Equitable Aid Union for Kansas met in fourth annual session Tuesday at Lawrence. There were fifty delegates present from all parts of the state. The session lasted two days.

The east bound Union Pacific passenger train was wrecked at Solomon at noon Friday all the sleepers and two coaches being thrown from the track by a broken switch. The cars did not turn over and no one was seriously hurt.

American Steam Laundry.

HUTTON & OSWALD, Proprietors.

Telephone 107, West Sherman Street.

HUTCHISON, KANSAS.

FOR STYLISH RIGS!

And Teams that are handsome steppers, Go to the Livery Barn of

Smith, Miller & Carpenter,

First Avenue West. Telephone 139.

Railroad Time Tables.

ROCK ISLAND.

EASTWARD.

No 20 Mail Express, departs..... 9:25 a m

No 24 Night Express, departs..... 12:35 p m

No 62 Freight Accommodation..... 11:40 a m

WESTWARD.

No 19 Mail and Express, departs..... 7:30 p m

No 23 Dodge City Express, departs..... 8:30 a m

No 61 Freight Accommodation..... 3:00 p m

No 18 Runs to Pratt only.

No 25 runs through to Dodge City and Liberal.

Nos 23 and 24 daily except Sunday.

MISSOURI PACIFIC.

EASTWARD.

No 444 Denver and St. Louis Express.. 7:32 p m

No 481 Wichita and Kansas City Accommodation leaves..... 8:00 p m

WESTWARD.

No 428 St. Louis and Denver Express.. 7:32 p m

No 463 Wichita Accommodation..... 11:40 a m

No 465 Way Freight departs..... 9:45 a m

Trains No 424, 463 and 465 do not run on Sundays.

Cars run through to St. Louis without change.

Chair cars to Denver free of charge. This is the short line to point west.

P. J. LEINBACH, Agent.

H. C. TOWNSEND, Gen. Pass. Agent.

HUTCHINSON AND SOUTHERN.

No 2 Mail and Express, arrives..... 8:10 p m

No 3 Freight and Accommodation ar. 10:10 a m

No 1 Mail and Express, departs..... 8:05 a m

No 4 Freight and Accommodation, depart. 3:50 p m

Daily. Daily except Sunday.

Close connections made at Hutchinson and Kingman with diverging lines.

Daily connection with stage line at Cameron reaching Pond Creek at 5 p m.

Professional Cards

R. B. WILSON, M. D.,

HUTCHINSON, KANSAS.

Special attention given to the treatment of skin diseases. Office in Updeshoff building, calls in the country answered either night or day.

DRS. STEWART,

805 North Main Street.

Dr. J. E. Stewart, Surgery. Special attention to diseases of women.

Dr. R. A. Stewart, Eye, Ear, Throat and Nose. Glasses properly adjusted.

J. G. MALCOLM.

Homeopathic Physician and Surgeon.

Office No. 10 North Main Street, near Docherty Dry Goods Store.

Residence 113 First Avenue East.

DAVIDSON & WILLIAMS,

LAWYERS.

Rooms 1, 2 and 3 in Masonic Block.

R. E. UPDESHOFF,

DENTIST.

Office corner of Main and Sherman St., second floor, second door, Hutchinson, Kan.

L. F. GALT,

Attorney-at-Law.

Masonic Temple, Hutchinson, Kan.

E. C. CLARK,

LAWYER.

Office opposite McGland, Hutchinson, Kan.

E. A. TAYLOR, M. D.

HUTCHINSON, KANSAS.

Office No. 14 North Main, room 8, upstairs

Residence No. 14, 5th Avenue, east.

TUCKER & ROBINSON,

DENTIST.

Corner of Main and Sherman St. in, in Wilcox block.

T. J. Wolfersberger,

AUCTIONEER

(Successor to I. Wolfersberger)

Makes a specialty of country sales. Speaks both German and English. Prices to suit the times. Residence, No. 750 Avenue E. Call at Gazette of Ice or Vincents store.

The Oldest Wholesale Whisky House in Kansas City.

Standard Liquor Company,

OLIVER & BRYAN, Established by R. S. Patterson 1868.

614 Broadway. Mo.

Kansas City.

Kentucky Bourbon, $1.00, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00 per gallon.

Pen. or old, Rye, $2.00, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00 per gallon.

Brands